List is ranked by number of designers. If ranking criteria was not provided companies are listed alphabetically below those who did. Ties are also listed alphabetically. IBR does not imply that the size of a company is any indication of its quality. Not all companies contacted responded to our survey. Results are compiled only from responses received. Some listings may have been edited due to space restrictions. TopLists are a voluntary, unpaid publication and we make every effort for accuracy. In the event of a mistake, the list will not be reprinted but rather published the next scheduled time with corrections. If you need more information...
