

DESIGNATION

Ginnett earns fraud examiner designation

The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, a provider of anti-fraud training and education, has announced that certified public accountant Karen A. Ginnett has been awarded the certified fraud examiner designation.

The designation is given to select professionals who meet a stringent set of criteria and pass an examination designed to assess a candidate's knowledge of fraudulent financial transactions, the legal elements of fraud, criminology and ethics and fraud investigation.

Ginnett is a member of the litigation and consulting team at Hooper Cornell in Boise. She has more than 20 years of diverse public accounting experience.

HONORS

Daly, Rathbone named in Barron's publication

Rathbone McReynolds & Daly
Investment Consulting of Wachovia

office to the company's honors clubs in recognition of their exceptional performance serving clients.

Named to the Chairman's Council was Mike Cusack, senior vice president, portfolio manager; and John McCune, senior vice president, portfolio manager.

Woodworth wins 'best accessorized room' award

Irene Woodworth, CEO of One Day Redesigns and The Color and Redesign Institute in Boise, received the "Best Accessorized Room" award at the recent International Interior Redesign Industry and Staging Specialists Conference in San Diego.

Woodworth has been in the industry for over 28 years. She is a member of IRIS and its local Idaho and Eastern Oregon Chapter, as well as a Women's Council of Realtors affiliate member.

Woodworth

See more People items on pg 5F.